

At Calvary

Everyday lives are torn
As in pain they grieve and mourn
And when the joy of life has flown,
Hearts cry out "Do I weep alone?"

On the news tragedy
Tearful eyes and misery
The people say "Life's so unfair"
Hearts cry out "Does God really care?"

Chorus:

*Then a tear rolls down the Father's face
Into a pool of amazing grace
A wave of love spreads out and washes away all doubt
Because of Jesus Christ at Calvary*

Around the world wickedness
Spins it's web of sin and death
Such evil's hard to comprehend
Hearts cry out "Will it never end?"

Chorus:

*Then a tear rolls down the Father's face
Into a pool of amazing grace
A wave of love spreads out and washes away all doubt
Because of Jesus Christ at Calvary*

*Yes a tear rolls down the Father's face
Into a pool of amazing grace
A wave of love spreads out and washes away all doubt
Because of Jesus Christ at Calvary*

And Christ is coming soon in victory, in victory
